CONFESSED THIEF GIVES BACK TALK

Satisfied With Sentence
But Says There
Are Others.

DEFENDANTS ARE HASTY IN PLEADING GUILTY

AN UNSIGNED INDICTMENT RE-TIFIED—STRONG MUSTER OF PORTO RICANS AT BAR
OF JUSTICE.

Porto Rico was strongly represented at the bar of the Circuit Court this morning. Arraignments on indictments were the order of business.

Jose Reveira, a Porto Rican lad, was the first defendant called on. The charge was larceny in the second degree for the theft of jewelry valued at $15 from the house of Isaac Louis Cockett, Kaibahi. Through an interpreter in Spanish Reveira pleaded guilty. This was at 9:20 o'clock, but the defendant was so full of talk and had so many things to say that more than half an hour elapsed before he took his seat in the prisoner's dock again under the maximum sentence of two years in prison at hard labor.

Deputy Attorney General Cathcart said the theft was committed at night, yet the charge was but second degree larceny. He explained later, when the defendant had made statement, that it could not be proved that the house was closed when entered.

Judge Gear, after hearing the defendant's statement in reply to the usual question if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced, informed him that according to his own showing he had committed burglary and for that crime might be imprisoned for life. The defendant talked back a lot, the court understanding him to say that when he got out of jail he would kill the judge. The interpreter said outside afterward that the defendant did not make this threat.

When the sentence of two years was finally pronounced, Reveira said he was satisfied but there were other guilty persons around town. Then he angrily demanded that his money be returned to him. Judge Gear at first answered that he would have no use for money in jail, but finding on inquiry that prisoners were allowed to buy tobacco, etc., questioned the prisoner about the amount the police had taken from him. Detective Kapa was called and substantially corroborated Reveira's accounting, the deposit being now four dollars and thirty odd cents. A dollar was paid for a hack to fetch the boy's clothes.

Florence Andino, Manuel Morales and Kaimo Martin were arraigned together, the first-named for wounding Coda

Takematsu with a knife, the others for being present and aiding and abetting Andino. The principal is a full black, tall and handsome, while his alleged accessories are of the usual Porto Rican type, saffron-bred and medium-sized. Andino corroborated the others in their plea of an alibi, but was told to plead for himself. He promptly said he was guilty. When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed on him, the principal began to tell the story of his deed. He had gone into the place of the Japanese at twilight and called for a lemonade. The Japanese asked him if he wanted to play seven-eleven and the defendant answered that he did not understand what was meant. Then he was hustled about. Here the court interrupted him to ask if he was pleading self-defense. The answer being in the affirmative, a plea of not guilty was ordered to be entered.

There was a hitch in the arraignment of the trio just mentioned. When Mr. Cathcart had concluded reading the indictment he discovered that it was not signed by the foreman of the grand jury. Judge Gear said it was no indictment and continued the case till Saturday. The grand jury, however, came into court later with the indictment duly signed by George T. Kneegel, foreman. Mr. Kaulukou moved the indictment be dismissed on the ground that it purported to have been made on August 8 while it was only signed today.

"How do you know?" asked the court.

"Because I saw Mr. Kneegel take it out of this room this morning."

The motion was denied and the defendants pleaded as already stated.

Ah Cheong pleaded guilty to larceny in the second degree for the theft of jewelry worth $15 from Geo. Haflner. Mr. Kaulukou, who had stood up with him, on hearing the plea stated that he did not appear for the defendant. Ah Cheong, a quiet and respectable-looking young Chinese in European clothes, when asked if he had anything to say why he should not be sentenced, began to answer in such a low tone that Judge Gear called him up close to the bench. Defendant told the court in English that he sold the articles and returned the money to Mr. Haflner by the latter's request. The court ordered the plea changed to not guilty.

Benjamin Haheo, indicted for assault with a shotgun on Rebecca Houghtaling, pleaded not guilty and his bond was fixed at $500. Mr. Kaulukou appeared for him.

Cheong Kwai, assault with intent to murder committed on Fong Quane, had his plea rescheduled till Saturday at the request of F. E. Thompson.

Antone Perry, seduction, and William Pangelly, assault with a weapon, were also allowed to reserve their pleas at the request of S. E. Chillingworth. R. Duncan pleaded not guilty to malicious injury for tearing down a stable belonging to Annie Akong at Kaibahi and his bond for appearance was approved. This case arises out of an old trespass controversy that has already been aired in civil proceedings.

Bishop Cecil Wilson, the other day at Portsmouth, England, captained a cricket eleven made up of the local clergy against a team of officers from the Royal Marine Artillery. The Bishop's side won, making 122 runs, of which he contributed 18.

MINOR WELL GUARDED

MARY ALICE PORTER'S
ESTATE IS INCREASED

THE MOTHER'S DISINHERITING WILL TO BE CONTESTED IN TRIAL BY JURY—GOOD HOME PROVIDED.

Cecil Brown, guardian of Mary Alice Porter, a minor, in his annual account charges himself with $2,973.21 and asks to be allowed $2,332.08, showing a balance of $641.13 in favor of the ward on income account. The capital of the estate has been materially increased under Mr. Brown's management, as the following statements from his report show:

"The guardian's accounts filed last year showed a balance of income on hand of $1,193.48. The total gross income for the year ending August 8, 1902, shows the sum of $1,859.73; the expenditures for account of support and maintenance for that period have been $675.20. From the income of the estate there has been transferred to principal account and invested the sum of $1,225. The accounts now filed show a balance of income on hand of $641.13.

"The guardian, as the interest on the mortgages and notes is paid, hopes during the coming year to credit the principal account with whatever sum, that may not be needed or expended in the support, maintenance and education of the minor, and invest the same.

"Since the last report the mother of the minor died, leaving a will under which the minor was disinherited, everything having been left to the husband of the mother and stepfather of the ward. Proceedings disputing the validity of the will have been taken, and are now pending for hearing before a jury.

"The ward has been placed in charge of her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Savidge, who is superintending the care, maintenance and education of the ward, and is providing her with a good home and proper surroundings."

The ward is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Theo. C. Porter. Her father was manager of the bank of Claus Spreckels & Co. and for a time Minister of Finance in the Provisional Government.

ARE NOT DEMOCRATS

The Independent came out on Tuesday last with a statement to the effect that the sympathies of the members of the Portuguese Political Club are Democratic. Several of the most prominent of these young men have been seen and they emphatically deny that there is even the slightest grain of truth in this statement. They want a public denial of it.

Of course, it is well known that J.M. Camara, president of the club was a Democratic candidate for the Legislature at the last election. It is also well known that he was defeated. Now Camara, when he went to the Portuguese Club did so with the understanding that the work of the organization would be non-partisan in its nature and he then and there swore allegiance to all political conviction except the dictates of the club. It is probably from the fact that Camara was a Democrat that the rumor to the effect that the club is Democratic has gone abroad.

The young men who have been seen declare that they have not joined any party but the probabilities are that they will vote the Republican ticket if that party gives them representation.

TODAY'S TAX APPEALS

There are four cases before the Tax Appeal Court for this afternoon as stated below: C. W. Ashford being attorney for the appellants in the first three and Magoun & Peters for the last-named.

Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., returned $32,400, assessed $46,100, appeals on $13,700.

Carlos A. Long returned $7500, assessed $11,250, appeals on $3450.

John F. Colburn, returned $15,500, assessed $23,350, appeals on $8850.

Elizabeth K. Booth, returned $20,500, assessed $31,000, appeals on $10,500.

Assessor J. W. Pratt said this afternoon that the appeals yet pending would all be over taken within the time limit of the court.

MISTAKE CORRECTED.

In a recent article published in the Bulletin reference was made to the management of the new hotel in the Young building and in connection therewith the name of H. W. Lake was mentioned. The words "now of the Monna" were also used, referring to Mr. Lake. This was, of course, a mistake, for Mr. Allen is still the manager of the fine hostelry, nor have there been any changes there in the management since he took charge of the place November 1, 1901.

The Baroness von Kotteler, widow of the German minister killed in Peking, has sent invitations to several friends in Detroit, her former home, to attend the unveiling of the monument to her husband in Berlin.

WATER SITUATION

WAS DISCUSSED

At a Meeting of Waimea
Stockholders Held
Today.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED
TO MAKE INVESTIGATIONS

ATTEMPT WILL BE MADE TO GET
LEASE FROM GAY & ROBIN-SON SATISFACTORY TO THE AGENTS.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Waimea Sugar Co. was held in the assembly hall above Castle & Cooke's offices this forenoon for the purpose of discussing the present condition of the plantation and its prospects for the future. There was a large attendance and the discussion developed many interesting points pertaining to the plantation.

Castle & Cooke, agents for the plantation, presented a statement of affairs to the stockholders which represented that if the water supply could not be improved, they wished to be relieved of the agency.

It was brought out that the wells of the sugar estate showed about 100 grains of salt to the gallon whereas in the past, the amount was only 40 grains.

Manager Fassoth of Waimea gave as a reason for this increase in salt that the well casings which had been in use for from sixteen to twenty years had become worn out, allowing the salt water from the upper strata to seep through into the volumes from below.

The whole success of the future of Waimea plantation seems to hinge on a satisfactory lease of mountain water being secured from Gay & Robinson.

A lease has already been made out which together with the work of leading the water down to the plantation would cost about $30,000.

It is understood that the terms of this lease are not satisfactory to Castle & Cooke and that this is really at the bottom of the refusal of the present agents to advance the money.

While the plantation in the past did a flourishing business even when the wells did show 40 per cent of salt, it is conceded by all who know the conditions that pure, fresh mountain water is the only salvation of the sugar estate so that all energies are being directed toward this matter. With fresh water, the crop could be increased by 500 tons.

At this forenoon's meeting, a committee consisting of E. E. Conant, W. E. Rowell and Edwin Paris was appointed to examine into the exact condition of the plantation affairs with reference to the wells and to report on the practicability of bringing out new water.

Every effort will be made to get a lease from Gay & Robinson that will prove satisfactory to Castle & Cooke.

AMERICAN SUGAR CO.'S AFFAIRS IMPROVED

At the annual meeting of the American Sugar Co. today the affairs of the corporation were shown to have distinctly improved.

By the auditor's report it was seen that since January 1, 1901, when the debt was $144,192, a reduction of $57,378 had been made, the net indebtedness on July 31 last being $87,113.

The reports showed that the herds had increased to about 5000 head of cattle and 21,500 head of sheep.

Negotiations were reported in progress for renting a portion of the land for the cultivation of rice.

Officers were re-elected as follows: E. H. Woolehouse, president; Geo. N. Wilcox, vice president; E. A. Mott Smith, secretary; A. W. Carter, treasurer; W. H. Baird, auditor; A. F. Judd and Jas. M. Wakefield, directors.

Over twenty ping pong players have already entered for the tournament to begin soon at the Officers Club.

Charles F. Klein of St. Louis, has much of the furniture in his house made of horns of different animals which he gathered during his many years' residence in Western Texas.

Tire-making firms in Hannover, Germany, periodically promote automobile tire-mounting contests between chauffeurs in order to educate the operators in making quick repairs. Money prizes are awarded the winners and the competition is keen.

TICKETS ARE SELLING

FOR FISTIC CARNIVAL
AT ORPHEUM THEATRE

SOLDIERS AT CAMP M'KINLEY
BACK KAMISKY FOR ALL THEY ARE WORTH—NO KICKS ANTICIPATED.

Indications point a most successful fistic carnival at the Orpheum on Saturday night next when Weday and Kamisky will box for ten rounds and other exponents of the manly art will exhibit their cleverness with the mits.

Tickets for the great event were placed on sale this morning and inquiry at the box office brings out the information that the seats are going very rapidly. Among the early purchasers of tickets were a large number of prominent business men of the city.

The show at the Orpheum Saturday night will begin at 8:30 o'clock and it is calculated that the preliminary bouts will consume an hour's time so that the big event of the evening will start in at about 9:30 o'clock.

Those who have seen "Spider" Jackson and Edwards at their work state that these clever boxers will surprise the spectators when they come together. They are clean fighters and are as well matched that the outcome of their four-round bout is a matter of doubt.

In fact, every number on the program will be well worth seeing and the management promises that there will not only not be a single hitch in the program but that the people will leave the place without a kick to register.

The soldiers at Camp McKinley are taking the greatest interest in the Weday-Kamisky fight and are backing their man for all there is in it. There is also a well defined rumor that if Weday should win the fight there will be a very poor financial condition at the camp for a month after the fight.

On Saturday morning all the men who are to take part in the various bouts will be examined by a physician to see if they are in a perfect physical condition.

Paddy Ryan will be the referee for all the matches of the evening.

The management, ever mindful of the press, has arranged for a table on the stage where newspaper representatives may at all time during the evening, have an unobstructed and close view of the matches.

TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE WARNING

In the Police Court this morning the principal case was the one against Wong Loy, charged with keeping a disorderly house. F. M. Brooks appeared for the defendant and he and the deputy sheriff, who conducted the case for the prosecution, had several heated arguments.

The deputy sheriff took the stand, stating that he had arrested the defendant in his house on King street, near Liliha, on the night of August 8. He had found the defendant on the porch while in the house were several Chinese women, one of whom, Ah Chin, alias several other names, was discovered with a Chinaman in a very compromising situation. Officer Ah On, who accompanied the deputy sheriff at the time of the arrest, testified to the same effect.

Ah Chin was next put on the stand and it was at this time that the fun commenced.

The deputy sheriff examined the almond-eyed lady but was soon interrupted by Brooks, who objected to the asking of any questions by which the witness might incriminate herself. He stated that there was a case in the Federal court this afternoon, as it was supposed that the defendant had imported the women from China for the purpose of prostitution.

The court stated that the Federal court had nothing to do with the Police Court but warned the witness that she was at liberty to refuse to answer any question by which she might incriminate herself. After this, the witness proved to be a very poor one for the prosecution and the case was nolle prosequi.

Another case against the same defendant in which he was charged with soliciting, was continued.

A SALOON ASSAULT

Herman F. Angel, until recently a motorman on the Rapid Transit line, got pretty badly hurt in a row in one of the saloons of the city this morning. His assailant, a sailor named Alfred Butner, met Angel in the saloon and attacked him with a beer glass, inflicting a couple of wounds on the latter's scalp. Officer Hart quickly arrived on the scene and set Angel, whose wounds were bleeding profusely, to the Queen's Hospital. He then placed Butner under arrest. The case will come up tomorrow.

When Butner was arrested, he stated that he had been drunk last night and that Angel had taken advantage of his condition by stealing $55 from him. He attacked Angel to "get even" with him.

GOT A "CLEAN SHAVE"

A good joke on a prominent Hilo man now in the city for a short sojourn is now going the rounds.

A couple of days ago this man went into the barber shop at the Hawaiian Hotel and asked for a shave, not mentioning the fact that he wished his sideburns to be left intact.

The man from Hilo settled himself comfortably in the barber's chair, closed his eyes, and probably dozed. The barber went at his work, and when he had finished, tapped his customer on the shoulder and said: "Dere, sir; you look mooch better now."

The "clean shave" which had been given the Hilo man so startled him when he looked in the mirror that he was speechless for a moment. When he did recover, however, there was a flow of oratory more eloquent than any ever heard from a judge's bench on the Big Island.
